

Customer Service Specialist – Metro Atlanta, GA

William Harris Lee & Co. is looking for a customer service specialist to join our team in our violin shop in Metro Atlanta! You won't just be waiting on customers, keeping track of the workflow, processing paperwork. You'll be introducing young students (and sometimes adults) to their first instrument, which they are so excited about learning to play. You'll be supporting orchestra directors and private teachers in their labor of love. You'll be helping players, from amateur to professional, find their voice, their companion, an instrument that will be a part of their life. And when it needs maintenance or repair, you'll ensure it gets meticulous, expert care in our workshop. We have a talented, happy, dedicated team, a beautiful shop, beautiful instruments, and great customers. If you are a conscientious, energetic, music lover and want to help musicians of all kinds find their music and share it with the world, come join us!

What You'll Be Doing

- Be the friendly and helpful first point of contact for customers--in person, by phone, and by email. Demonstrate outstanding customer service to every customer, from new young students to world-class professionals.
- Ensure on-time customer rentals, repairs, and sale instrument maintenance by maintaining and monitoring shop work schedule.
- Assist parents with the rental process, helping to size students, introducing the parent and student to the new instrument and instrument care, and explaining the rental contract.
- Handle transactions and process the associated paperwork for rentals, service, and sales. Follow up with customers to build and maintain good relationships.
- Make customer service visits to schools/teachers for delivery/pickup.
- Tune instruments; assist with play-testing for quality control and adjustment.
- Keep the showroom and office tidy, organized, and attractive.
- Document and maintain procedures and tutorials.
- Provide the Store Manager assistance with various inventory, marketing, or other projects.

Essential Qualities

- Passion for serving teachers, students, parents, players, motivated by a love of music.
- Dedication and deeply felt responsibility to delivering the highest standard of quality.
- Devotion to learning and sharing knowledge to support teachers, students, parents, and colleagues.
- Positive outlook, embodying respect for customers and colleagues, and viewing problems as opportunities for creativity and ingenuity.
- Conscientiousness and dependability, with time, work, and attention to customers; acting professionally, with integrity and honesty.

Required Skills and Experience

- Able to tune and play a violin or viola.
- Highly organized and conscientious, excellent time management; ability to work with calm efficiency.
- Digital skills, including experience with a POS system, messaging apps, Office 365, and Google apps.
- A clean driving record and valid license, for using a company vehicle for schools/teachers visits.
- Administrative support and office experience.
